ORDER

Per: Rohit Kapoor, Member (Judicial):

1. This Court convened through hybrid mode.

2. Time lines are the essence of Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code 2016, herein after referred as Code, to achieve objects as enshrined in the preamble of this Code and proceedings before this Adjudicating Authority are summary proceedings and this aspect is intrinsic in provisions of the Code.
3. Before coming to merits of this CP it is relevant to record here;
 - a. When this matter came up for consideration on 20 October 2021, this Adjudicating Authority issued a notice to Corporate Debtor by speed post and e-mail. The notice was sent by the registry through speed post and e-mail. Next date was fixed for 22 December 2022.
 - b. As per the tracking report, the notice was received by the Corporate Debtor on 25 October, 2021 and by e-mail on 22 December 2021 along with the copy of Company Petition.
 - c. When the matter came up again for hearing on 22 December 2021, Counsel for the Corporate Debtor appeared and sought further three weeks' time to file reply affidavit.
 - d. It is evident as per the order dated 22 December 2021 passed by this Adjudicating Authority that a schedule for completion of pleadings was fixed on this date. Corporate Debtor was granted three weeks' time to file the reply affidavit and upon filing this affidavit the Operational Creditor was granted two weeks to file rejoinder, if any. The matter was directed to be listed on 28 February, 2022.
 - e. When the matter was taken for consideration on 28 February, 2022, Ld. Counsel appearing for the Corporate Debtor again sought further time to file its reply affidavit; Two weeks further time was granted to file the reply affidavit and the matter was directed to be listed on 5 April, 2022.
 - f. On 05 April, 2022 when the matter came up for consideration the Corporate Debtor sought further time to file the affidavit. The Ld. Counsel for the Corporate Debtor stated that there was some Dharna at factory premises from 03 January, 2021 to 12 March, 2021 by workers demanding payment of workers of wages and other financial benefits and the proceedings were pending before the office of Divisional Labour Commissioner Balasore.

- g. It was stated by Ld. Counsel for Corporate Debtor, that in view of this agitation by the workers, petition had been filed before SDM Balasore for promulgation of Section 144 of CRPC against the workers and their family members on 28 September, 2021. In view of these reasons the Corporate Debtor is unable to have access to the records in filing the reply affidavit in this application.
 - h. On 5 April, 2022, after considering the submissions of the Ld. Counsel for the Corporate Debtor for grant of further extension of time this Adjudicating Authority not satisfied with the reasons stated, declined to grant further time and the matter after hearing Counsel for operational creditor was reserved for orders.
 - i. No application/motion however has been filed before this Adjudicating Authority for seeking any further time.
 - j. There is nothing shown to us the relevant record for filling reply was/is lying in the factory premises and the same situation as in September 2021 continues in April 2022.
4. In view of the facts and circumstances based on record, we are of the considered opinion that it was a very casual attempt made by the Corporate Debtor to seek further adjournment for the 4th time consecutively since October, 2021 and reference to agitation by workers and families in September, 2021 was merely an attempt by the Corporate Debtor to prolong the proceedings. Keeping in view, this matter under Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 wherein the very object of the Code is to finalize the Insolvency proceedings in a time bound manner for maximization of value of assets, granting adjournment after another and that too without any basis cannot be permitted by this Adjudicating Authority and this Adjudicating Authority thus declined to further extend the time for filling reply affidavit by Corporate Debtor.

5. From the above fact on record, it is clear that the Corporate Debtor was afforded reasonable opportunity to file its Affidavit-in-Reply, however, the Corporate Debtor has failed to file the Affidavit-in-Reply despite repeated opportunities.
6. It is significant to note, when the matter was reserved for judgment on 05 April 2022 an affidavit by Shri Anant Gupta on behalf of Birla Tyres Limited appears to have been sent to the Registry at 10:27 P.M through an e mail.
7. In this affidavit, stated to be the supplementary affidavit, permission was sought to bring on record that the Corporate Debtor has now propounded a Scheme of Arrangement for reconstruction and for compromise with its creditors and members. The Scheme also provides for resolution of debts of the unsecured creditors of the Corporate Debtor which includes the Operational Creditor.
8. It is further stated in paragraph 8 of the said supplementary affidavit that the Corporate Debtor had applied for seeking no objection from National Stock Exchange Ltd. on 02 February 2022 and from Bombay Stock Exchange Ltd. on 14 February 2022. However, till date the Corporate Debtor is still awaiting the no objection letters from the concerned stock exchanges.
9. It is further stated in paragraph 10 of the said supplementary affidavit that the Corporate Debtor has made an application under rule 11 of the National Company Law Tribunal, 2016 which has not been numbered and the Diary number for the same is 1098134008532022 dated 08 March 2022.
10. In paragraph 11 of the said supplementary affidavit it is mentioned that it is necessary that the section 9 petition which was filed by the Operational Creditor may be kept in abeyance for some time, so that the Operational Creditor gets an opportunity to participate to express its views in the proposed Scheme of Arrangement and compromise with the creditors of the Corporate Debtor Company along with other creditors both secured and unsecured.
11. We are of the view that the stand taken by the deponent is not permissible while considering a petition under section 9 of the Code and also this affidavit could not be filed after the matter was reserved for judgement.
12. The permission to place the supplementary affidavit on record by Corporate Debtor is declined for the reasons recorded herein above.

13. Now advertng to merits of this petition under Section 9, on the basis of record before us, we find that:
